Gearhart stop, 2.2 miles North-
Turn left onto Pacific Way

G Larcin Realty Group / 609 Broadway / 738-5797 Featuring Frank Lynch, currently a resident of scenic Cannon Beach, will be featured. Lynch is a location portrait and fine art photographer. He has previously contributed images to annual reports, ballet brochures and newspaper editorials. Galleries in Oregon, Pennsylvania and California have exhibited his work. Originally educated as a scientist with a Cornell University Degree in Physics and Math, he studied photography at the University of Delaware Graduate School of Art. He currently teaches digital photography at Clatsop Community College

H Fairweather House & Garden / 612 Broadway/ 738-8899 Premiering with another new artist for Fairweather and debuting an exhibition of contemporary paper art by Maggie von Moos. A lifelong Oregonian, Maggie creates notable collages depicting the endless arrangements found by using her imagination and talent to fold, gather and fan paper to create still life floral elements and transforms the images into botanical works of art. This exhibition explores the alternative fine art collage processes, extending original art into the third dimension Music and wine will be offered, as well.

I SunRose Gallery / 606 Broadway / 738-7788 Amazing mosaic artist Kath Jones will be displaying new work in a show titled "Elements of Ornament". Kath's wall panels, urns and platters begin with a foundation of cast-off broken pottery pieces with their rich glazes into which she weaves glass, beads, semi-precious stones and shells. Her abstract work is often used as objects of meditation for their calming effects and natural, organic qualities. Also featured is a new artist to SunRose, jeweler Mari Marweg, whose "Utopia Jewels" are inspired by the Tree of Life represented in the movie Avatar. She creates necklaces, bracelets and earrings in the spirit of love that are beautiful to wear and beautiful to give. Live music will be provided by Richard T. and SunRose owner Ray Coffey and as always, tasty appetizers will be served.

J The Jewelry Box / 300 Broadway/ 717-1503 Adventure inside the Carousel Mall to this great shop. Featuring Japanese style watercolor prints by Richard Diebolt. Additionally Arts & Craft and Raku pottery will for sale and on display.

Featured Shows and Artists For July 3, 2010

A Yummy Wine Bar & Bistro/ 831 Broadway / 738-3100 Professional photographer Don Frank, began photographing a collection of new and unique imagery found in Seaside Oregon. The process began in the Fall of 2009 and continued through the Spring of 2010, resulting in a thought provoking exhibit he has titled, 'Oooh Isn't It Pretty,' presented at The Gallery at Yummy wine bar & bistro.

B Isabell Ross / 821 Broadway/ 738-8004
www.isabellross.com We are pleased to sponsor Astoria artist Charles Schweigert for the July Art Walk. Schweigert, a graduate of Michigan State University in East Lansing and the Center for Creative Studios in Detroit, Michigan, will be featuring his non-representational paintings on canvas and wood. His work is about the formal aspects of painting, especially light, color and texture. The subject of his compositions is about the emotional states of being rather than anything identifiable. The titles of his work often reference concepts in Buddhist teachings.

C Natural Nook / 734 Broadway / 738-5332
Works by Seaside Artist, Albert Wood will be featured. Wood is a multi media artist; his paintings, book and glass art will be on display and available for purchase.

D McKeown's/ 714 Broadway / 738-5232
Featuring works by Gregory David Duerfeldt. Duerfeldt was born in Portland, raised in McMinnville and currently lives and works in Seaside. He has worked in and traveled to many exotic locations including Shanghai where in 2003 he was able to see authentic original works by Rothko and Picasso. This rekindled his interest in drawing and painting and lead to his acceptance into the Hong Kong School of Art. Gregory searches through his work for a cohesiveness in a world and life that has been expansively diverse. His work encourages the viewer to see more in the world around them.

E Gilbert Dist. Gallery / 613 Broadway/ 738-4222 The Gilbert District Gallery will be featuring local artists with the theme of "The Beach", including local wildlife artist, Dave Bartholet, Fred Meyer from Cannon Beach, Seaside's own Ron Boyd, Ros Freer from Warrenton, and the amazing watercolorist, Thomas McNeill, also from Seaside. Refreshments and NW wines will be served.

F Hold Fast Tattoo Co. / 611 Broadway / 738-4055 Co-owners Brandy Coulthard and Jen Knox invite you to their new art gallery/tattoo shop. Featured artists to be announced.

K Shearwater Gallery / 111 Broadway / 738-0328 Feature new works in oil by Lisa Albinger for July. Please join us for refreshments and treats.

L Sam's Seaside Café / 104 Broadway / 717-1725 Professional golfer, inn keeper and local artist Wedgy Winchester will be unveiling new works in acrylic with ocean themes, including light houses.

M Trails End Art Assoc. / 656 A St. Gearhart/ 717-9458 Deanne Johnson will provide an artist demonstration during the artist reception and art walk for this month's gallery show featuring impressionist paintings. Food and beverages served.
